Back to School!

It is finally the last weekend of summer, and time for families with school-age kids to get back into the busy routine of the school year. Younger family members will miss having the “big kids” around, so extra attention is in order. A new book or art supplies might help them feel part of the school excitement.

Your children's teachers are your partners in helping your children become all they can be. Take the opportunity to meet them and visit the classroom soon after school starts, and keep them informed about any issues that may affect your child. The most successful students have involved parents!

Our downtown store at 227 S. Chadbourne St. has special summer hours. We will be open Mon – Thurs 11:00 – 6:00, and stay open later on Fri – Sat 10:00 – 8:00. Stop by on your way to movie night! It will be closed from Aug 21 – Sep 1.

Tax-Free Weekend

School will be starting for most students on August 22. Texas will once again have a sales tax-free holiday the weekend before, Aug 19 – 21, with no sales tax charged on clothes, backpacks, and most basic school supplies. For a complete list, click here
